

Preamble: Junior Ministry India (JM-I) is an active juvenile community of the Arcot Lutheran Church (ALC). It is an open arm of the Global Fellowship of Christian Youth. It imparts Christian values through uniting, serving and supporting around 3000 members; from all walks of faith in South India. Since 1979, JM-I caters with utmost care, relating to the day-to-day life oriented issues at micro and macro levels and focuses upon day to day global concerns.

This year 2009, marks the 30th Anniversary of JM-I's ministerial progress and its festivity through 30th Anniversary Camp.

Camp Theme: "I and the Nature" is chosen to relate one's life and commitment with a passion for the Nature; in the challenging context of Global Warming.

A plan for making the event grand and memorable, gives us the privilege of setting the camp.

1000 Participants from ALC JM-I are expected to participate in the Camp. Participants from associated organizations and Global Fellowship will be yet another salient feature. Boys and girls above 10 years belonging to several different faith backgrounds will find the camp as an opportunity and to interact with each other enthusiastically.

Camp Life : Camp will be segregated into five villages with common features of living in Tents, Cooking, Bible Studies, Afternoon Activities, Games and other Traditional Camp Activities.

Morning meditations/Flag Hoisting, Camp Fires, Cultural Events, Talents Expressions and a Special Thanksgiving Service will also unite the hands and hearts of the participants.

Indeed living in tents, cooking their own food, building up tables, kitchens, constructing towers and fence with ropes and Casurina poles are the thrilling experiences for our children and the young people. However, for practical reasons, the girls stay in separate buildings only during nights. Basic and necessary accommodation will be provided to the overseas guests inside the buildings.

WHEN from 27th September 2009 till 1st October 2009

ALC COMMUNITY COLLEGE PREMISES, PARANGIPETTAI (Porto Novo) CUDDALORE DISTRICT, TAMIL NADU, S.INDIA

Parangipettai, historically known as Porto Novo, a panchayat town, 30 kilometers south of Cuddalore, Tamil Nadu. It is located besides the Vellar River, a fishing village of the Bay of Bengal. It has a Marine Biology Research station (Affiliated to Annamalai University) and the "Sevamandir", a well known Educational Institution (serving over a century through educating women) founded by Ane Marie Pedersen, a Danish Missionary; witness the salient academic services from elementary to research levels. The ALC, over three decades on her faith journey, runs her mission through the life and witness of a small congregation besides the Community College for the past three years.
